POLICIES

- FREE parking is available behind the theatre.
- Taking videos or photos during the shows is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
- We discourage attendance for children age 5 or younger. Children must have a ticket (no free “lap-sitting”).
- Accessibility: The Old Opera House is wheelchair-accessible. To ensure a pleasant visit, please call ahead to 304-725-4420 for special arrangements.
- The Box Office opens one hour before showtime. To reserve seating or inquire about special group discounts, call 304-725-4420.
- Season Ticket Holders are able to secure seating reservations for the entire season. Call the box office early at 304-725-4420 to reserve your seats. (If you do not call, you may not be able to get seats for a specific performance.) Balcony seating is not available for all performances.

DINING, TOURS, AND RENTALS

- Dining: There are several restaurants within walking distance. Call the theatre for more details.
- Parties: We rent our balcony for private parties.
- Refreshments: Available for purchase during intermission in the Jean Heiler Art Gallery.
- Tours: The Old Opera House, built in 1910, is listed on the National Historic Register and is one block from the courthouse where John Brown was tried. Free tours of the theatre are available.
